Important Eligibility Rule

- Anyone starting in JO must either reside in the White Bear School District or attend school within the White Bear School District. However, any girl from outside the district who has already played for the club in the 14's or older competitive leagues during the 2007 season may continue to participate in full for the remainder of their eligible years. (Girls participating in the 17's age group during the 2010 season are the last group that may include out of district players)
